BERWICK, NOVA SCOTIA – The Kings Mutual Valley Wildcats of the Nova Scotia Major Bantam Hockey League announced today that Mike Best has been relieved of his coaching duties.

Former Wildcats bantam and junior A coach Travis Young will replace Best.

“We wish Mike well and thank him for his contributions to the bantam program,” said Wildcats owner Graham Baxter. “We just felt a new voice was needed and Travis did a great job with our bantams just a couple of seasons ago.”

The Wildcats bantams’ next game is 5 p.m. Saturday versus the Truro Bearcats at the Kings Mutual Century Centre in Berwick.
